

TAF-D

UNDERFLOOR DIFFUSER PLENUM WITH INLET

The TAF-D ducted plenum is constructed of a heavy gauge steel and is designed for application in underfloor air distribution systems. It can be used as a ducted supply or return unit. This model can also contribute toward achieving LEED Credits.

FEATURES & BENEFITS

- Designed for floor applications and utilized for ducted applications
- Heavy gauge steel plenum
- Installs into access flooring from top surface, removal of flooring is not required
- CT-TAF frame drops into plenum opening and sits on top of carpeting
- Can contribute toward achieving LEED certification

energy solutions